The Official Code of Georgia Annotated (O.C.G.A.) is copyrighted by the State of Georgia. By using this website, the user acknowledges the State's copyright interests in the O.C.G.A. Neither the O.C.G.A. nor any portions thereof shall be reproduced in any form without written permission from the Georgia Code Revision Commission, except for: (1) fair use under the copyright laws of the United States; or (2) those limited portions that are in the public domain (statute text and numbering).

Use of this website and the downloading or copying of any material there from shall be subject to the Terms and Conditions of LexisNexis®, which is the official publisher of the O.C.G.A. and maintains this website at its own expense to provide free public access to the law. It is not intended to replace professional legal consultation or advanced legal research tools. Please note that the latest print version of the O.C.G.A. is the authoritative version; and in case of any conflict between the materials on this website and the latest print version of the O.C.G.A., the print version shall control. To report errors regarding this website, please complete the publisher's Feedback Form.

Legislative staff of the Georgia General Assembly cannot respond to requests for legal advice or the application of the law to specific facts from anyone except members of the Georgia General Assembly. Therefore, to understand and protect your legal rights, you should consult your own private lawyer. Please refer legal questions elsewhere.
